MINUTS

Of the Proceedings in Parliament.

Saturday 1. September 1705.

Prayers said,

Rolls called,

Minutes of the last Sederunt read,

Then the Parliament proceeded upon a draught of the Act for a Treaty with the Kingdom of England, and the Act read; Also the Clause presented by the Duke of Athole relative thereto, read: And moved that the same be added to the Act.

Moved, That the first part of the said Clause rescinding that part of the English Act, declaring the Subjects of Scotland to be Aliens after the 25 of December 1705, be first under the Parliaments Consideration, which was agreed to.

Thereafter moved, that the Act for a Treaty be plain and simple, without Qualities, and that the Sentiment of the Nation concerning the Clause in the English Act, Declaring the Subjects of Scotland to be Aliens, be considered in a separat way than by this Act of Treaty.

After reasoning, it was agreed to by the Estates of Parliament, that the Clause in the English Act declaring the Scots Aliens, be rescinded before the Treaty of Union commence.

Thereafter the Clause given in by the Duke of Athole, read, being in these terms; Providing always, that the saids Commissioners shall not go furth of this Kingdom to enter into any Treaty with these to be appointed for England, until there shall be an Act past by the Parliament of England rescinding that Clause in the English Act, by which it is enacted, That the Subjects of Scotland shall be adjudged and taken as Aliens after the 25 of December 1705, And a Vote was thereupon stated, Add the Clause to this Act, or do it by a separat way.

Before Voting, the Duke of Athole gave in a Protestation in these terms, In regard that by an English Act of Parliament made in the last Session thereof, Intituled, Act for the effectual securing the Kingdom of England, from the apparent Dangers that may arise from several Acts lately past in the Parliament of Scotland, the Subjects of this Kingdom are to be adjudged Aliens born out of the Alledgeance of the Queen as Queen of England, after the 25 of December 1705, Do therefore protest for my self, and in name and behalf of all who do adhere to this my Protestation, that for saving the Honour and Interest of her Majesty as Queen of this Kingdom, and maintaining and preserving the undoubted Rights and Priviledges of her Subjects; No Act for a Treaty with England ought to pass in this House, unless a Clause be adjected there

, prohibiting and discharging the Commissioners that may be Nominat and Appointed for carrying on the said Treaty to depart the Kingdom in order thereto, until the said Clause be Repealed and Rescinded by the Parliament of England; And therefore desire this my Protestation may be Marked, and Recorded in the Records of Parliament: Which Protestation being read, the said Duke of Athole did take Instruments thereupon, and the same was adhered to by the persons following, viz. For the Nobility, The Duke of Hamilton, the Marqueses of Montrose and Tweeddale, the Earls of Errol, Marischal, Rothes, Home, Wigtoun, Strathmore, Roxburgh, Haddingtoun, Selkirk, Aberdeen, Ruglen and Bute. The Viscount of Stormount, the Lord Saltoun, the Lord Semple, the Lord Balmerino, the Lord Blantyre, the Lord Pringle, the Lord Belhaven, the Lord Colvil, and the Lord Kinaird. For the Barons, George Lockhart of Carnwath, Sir James Foulis of Collingtoun, Sir Robert Sinclair of Longformacus, Sir John Swintoun of that Ilk, Sir Patrick Home of Rentoun, George Baillie of Jerviswood, John Sinclair younger of Stevenstoun, Mr. Alexander Ferguson of Ille, John Brisband younger of Bishoptoun, Mr. William Cochran of Kilmaronock, Sir Humphray Colquhoun of Lufs, Sir John Houstoun of that Ilk, John Grahame of Killairn, James Grahame of Buchlivie, Robert Rollo of Pow-house, Sir Patrick Murray of Auchtertyre, John Murray of Struan, Sir David Ramsay of Balmain, Alexander Gordon of Pitlurg, John Udney of that Ilk, James Moir of Stoniewood, Lodovick Grant of that Ilk, David Bethune of Balfour, Major Henry Balfour of Dunboig, Robert Douglass of Strenry, Mr. Patrick Lyon of Auchterhouse, Mr. James Carnagie of Phinhaven, James Halyburtoun of Pitcur, David Grahame younger of Fintrey, James Ogilve younger of Boyn, Alexander Duff of Braco, Alexander Mackghie of Palgoun, Sir George Sinclair of Clyth, James Sinclair of Stempfer, Mr. Alexander Abercrombie of Tillibody, Mr. George Mackenzie of Inchcouther, and Mr. Aeneas Mackleod of Catboll. For the Royall Burrows, Alexander Robertson, Alexander Watson, Alexander Edgar, Patrick Bruce, Alexander Duff, Sir John Arskine, James Spittle, Francis Molison, Sir Peter Halket, John Hutcheson, Mr. William Sutherland, Mr. John Lyon, Mr. Dougal Stuart, Sir Robert Anstruther, Mr. John Carruthers, George Home, Mr. James Bethune, and Mr. Robert Frazer.

Then the Vote was stated, add the Clause to this Act, or do it by a separate way, and carried by a separate way.

Moved, That the Parliament now proceed to consider the way of the Nomination of the Commissioners for the Treaty, whether the same shall be left to Her Majesty, or be done by the Estates of Parliament.

Also moved, That it being now late, the further proceeding in this Act be delayed till the next Sederunt, and the Vote being stated, proceed on this Act, or delay; carried Proceed.

Thereafter the Vote was stated, Leave the Nomination of the Commissioners to the Queen, or to be done by the Estates of Parliament; and carried to be left to the Queen.

Then the Act again read, and put to the Vote, Approve or not.
